

Rev. Dr. MacGregor's Wife Divorced. PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 18.—A communication received in this city from Oshkosh, Wis., states that an absolute divorce was yesterday granted to Mrs. Hattie L. MacGregor, separating her from Rev. Duncan MacGregor, giving her the custody of their daughter, and allowing her to resume her maiden name. Dr. MacGregor was about a year ago the center of a sensational scandal in this city, which resulted in his ejection from the pastorate of the Centennial Baptist church.

The Pope's Letter on Secret Societies. ST. PAUL, Feb. 19.—The recent encyclical letter of the pope was read on Sunday at the service of the cathedral. Catholics who had been looking forward to it were agreeably surprised, for the translation as read was not as drastic with relation to the attitude of the church toward secret societies as many anticipated. The translation merely advised the young men of the church to keep out of secret societies not endorsed by the church, leaving it to their own discretion. There was nothing mendacious.

Starvation in the Hocking Valley. CINCINNATI, Feb. 19.—Word from Buckingham and other points in the Hocking valley yesterday stated that the destruction was such that the sufferers were becoming desperate. Governor McKinley ordered immediate necessities purchased at Buckingham and the bill sent to him. The Cincinnati relief committee later sent a carload of supplies, and Congressman Paul J. Sorg, of Millhollton, will send another carload on his own account as soon as he can have the shipment made.

Opposing Kelly's Confirmation. TRENTON, Feb. 19.—Oliver Kelly's re-nomination by Governor Werts to membership on the state board of assessors was severely criticized yesterday afternoon at a public hearing before the senate judiciary committee. A number of prominent citizens of New Brunswick appeared to oppose Mr. Kelly's confirmation. The committee has not yet determined upon its report. This is believed to be the first instance in which such a hearing has been held in public.

A Candidate's Suit for Damages. EAU CLAIRE, Wis., Feb. 19.—William F. Button, who was an independent candidate for congress in the last campaign, has sued eight men for $10,000 damages. He claims that while he was standing on a table making a speech in Democratic headquarters in this city election night the defendants climbed over the table and otherwise used him roughly, and he fell and broke his leg. The defendants include a grocer and six saloon keepers, all prominent locally.

Mother and Children Frozen to Death. ASHBURGH, S. D., Feb. 19.—Reports have been received of a severe blizzard in the little town of Ashburgh on Sunday. Mrs. Schwing and her children, living near Ashburgh, are reported to have become frozen during the storm, but because he withheld, and when found they were against a wall. The mother and two of the children were dead, and the other two children were badly frozen.

South Contest Millionaire David's Will. PHOENIX, Mont., Feb. 19.—The supreme court decided yesterday that Harriet Sheffield was not David's niece and brother of Andrew J. David, the Butte millionaire, may contest the will on the ground that it was a forgery and was revoked by other wills. This again opens the question as to the validity of the will under which John A. David, brother, claimed the whole estate of $8,000,000.

His Throat Cut in a Quarrel. ROCKFORD, Ill., Feb. 19.—A fight occurred between Jack Spradlin and Bob Dougherty, both young men, at Oak Grove church, three miles southwest of this city, Sunday night, in which Dougherty's throat was cut from ear to ear. The quarrel was over an old grudge. Spradlin has not been arrested. Dougherty will probably die.

He Was Jealous of the Pug 'tag. NEW ABERNETHY, Ind., Feb. 19.—Because his wife allowed her pug dog to kiss her, and would not permit him the same privilege, Peter Bowman assaulted her. Two sons attacked him with clubs, and fractured his skull. The boys were arrested and placed in jail to await the result of his injuries, which are serious.

Fire Alarm Boxes. The following list shows the location of the alarm boxes of the Shenandoah fire department:

- 15—Coal and Bowers streets.
16—Bowers and Centre streets.
24—Bridge and Centre streets.
25—Main and Centre streets.
32—Jardin and Oak streets.
34—Main and Poplar streets.
35—Main and Coal streets.
42—Gilbert and Centre streets.
43—Gilbert and Cherry streets.
45—Oak and Gilbert streets.
48—West and Poplar streets.
52—Chestnut and Coal streets.
54—West and Lloyd streets.

To send an alarm open the box, pull down the hook once and let go. When an alarm is sent in the fire bell will sound the number of the box and repeat the alarm four times.

HOW TO LOCATE ALARMS. If the alarm is sounded from box 15 the fire bell will strike one, then pause and strike five, which will indicate that the fire is in the vicinity of No. 15 box. Every alarm is repeated four times.

Mrs. Emily Thorne, who resides at Toledo, Washington, says she has never been able to procure any medicine for rheumatism that relieves the pain so quickly and effectively as Chamberlain's Pain Balm and that she has also used it for lame back with great success. For sale by Grubler Bros.

OUR POTTSVILLE LETTER.

An Interesting Budget of News From the County Seat.

POTTSVILLE, Feb. 18.—The greatly advertised Lizzie O'Brien, the star (?) witness in the almshouse investigation case, has been lost and found again. Her silent departure was heralded by the afternoon papers here with "scare" heads, intimating that the friends of the accused warden were instrumental in getting rid of her. Her re-appearance, however, they noted with a few lines of small type. In the estimation of all fair-minded people, better far had she remained lost to the world. As an untrustworthy and untruthful witness, her evidence will go far toward the acquittal of the man she accuses. If the prosecutors of Steward Hartman have no better evidence to offer than the ravings of a debauched woman, the sooner the whole business is dropped the better it will be for the fair name of old Schuylkill. The public has had sufficient of filth dished up to them in the shape of this girl's immoral conduct. I yield to no one—not even the ministers of the Gospel—in a desire to see the almshouse thoroughly fumigated—a general house-cleaning, as it were, and all the expensive leaks stopped. I am of the belief, however, that it will have to be done by other methods than those now being used. The county is very liberal toward its poor, and there is no question but that this liberality has been abused by certain officials. The position of Poor Director is one of the most important within the gift of the people of the county, and its administration should be conducted with the view of rendering "the greatest good to the greatest number."

There are but few people in this part of the county who are losing any sleep over the prospect of an insignificant portion of Schuylkill being attached to the proposed Quay county. For the life of me I cannot see any reason why people need go into a frenzy and tear their clothes over a little matter like that. If Quay county has been decided upon, so it will be, and no amount of persuasion or yelling will change the result. What will the loss of one or two small townships, with a population of a thousand or two, amount to when the same territory will help to form a new county and make the people of that section happy? It will not materially affect the standing of this county. It is claimed that it will lose Schuylkill county a Congressman, a Senator and a Representative. The result would be the same if not an inch of our territory were affected, if the law as to representation is carried out strictly. Under the last census we are entitled to but one Senator and five Representatives. So you see the creation of Quay county will not materially affect our interests as a county, but on the other hand may be of much benefit.

The license mill has shut down for the present year, and the number of liquor licenses granted is much larger than at the previous term. A large number of applicants have been refused. Now watch the transfers. People who have procured licenses for the purpose of selling or renting their properties at fabulous prices, to the less favored ones, ought to be exposed. Our judges should emulate the example of other courts and refuse to permit these people to make merchandise out of their license privileges.

Just as was predicted in this correspondence, the Borough Council has refused to give the people a chance to vote for public water works. The Councilmen are wise in awaiting the result of the Shenandoah experiment. Besides, what is the use of going through the farce of voting for a new water plant when there is no available water supply to be had, the old company having secured all there were lying around loose. I am of the belief that Pottsville will get no other water except when a supply is had from the Niagara Falls company.

Our present Congressman is certainly plucky. For years he has labored in and out of season to secure for this city a public building. Notwithstanding numerous defeats and discouragement, he at last succeeds just as he is about to retire from his arduous duties. Mr. Kelly has been a hard worker in the halls of Congress, and retires with the best wishes of his constituents of both political parties.

Ten days loss of time on account of sickness and a doctor bill to pay, is anything but pleasant for a man of a family to contemplate, whether he is a laborer, mechanic, merchant or publisher. Jas. O. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexico, Texas, was sick in bed for ten days with the grip during its prevalence a year or two ago. Later in the season he had a second attack. He says: "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with considerable success. I think, only being in bed a little over two days. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy." It should be borne in mind that the grip is much the same as a very severe cold and requires precisely the same treatment. When you wish to cure a cold quickly and effectually give this remedy a trial. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Grubler Bros.

Notice to Subscribers. Subscribers to the EVENING HERALD who are not receiving their paper regularly and people who wish to receive the paper as new subscribers, are requested to leave their addresses at Hooks & Brown's stationery store, on North Main street.

A bad cough or cold calls for a good remedy—the cure for it. For Coughs, Colds, La Grippe and Consumption, a perfect and permanent cure is Pan-Tin, the worst cases yield to its healing properties. Costs 25 cents. Pan-Tin is sold at Grubler Bros. drug store.

Rupture. Cure guaranteed. No operation. Inquire at the Shenandoah drug store, No. 3 South Main street.

O. W. O. Harshman, Sheriff of Tyler Co., W. Va., appreciates a good thing and does not hesitate to say so. He was almost prostrated with a cold when he procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He says: "It gave me prompt relief. I find it to be an invaluable remedy for coughs and colds." For sale by Grubler Bros.

TO HELP THE POOR.

A Commendable Step Taken by the Local Y. W. C. T. U.

The members of the local "Ys" have formed a Five Cent Club for the relief of the poor people of town, and have appointed committees to solicit in their respective districts contributions of 5 cents weekly from such people as can afford to give their mite to a fund for general relief. The committees appointed and their districts are as follows: Miss Nellie Baird, North Main street to Line; Miss Maeggie Jacoby, East Coal; Miss Fannie Davis, West Coal; Miss Priscilla Smith, East Lloyd; Miss Mattie Price, West Lloyd; Miss Della Daddow, West street; Miss Priscilla Smith, East Centre; Miss Jennie Gunter, West Centre; John Kerslake, White street; Miss Belle Brown, East Oak; Miss Annie Roberts, West Oak; Miss Millie Davis, North Jardin; John Hough, South Jardin; Miss Hannah Davis, Chestnut street; Miss Maggie Davis, Gilbert street; and Miss May Duato, Cherry street.

Mr. Lamb Replies. EDITOR HERALD.—The communication published in yesterday's issue of your paper, over the signature of "Many Citizens," contained two or three assertions, or rather insinuations, which in justice to myself and the citizens who supported me for re-nomination, I cannot permit to pass unnoticed. Though my name is mentioned but once, and then in a sort of semi-complimentary way, the inferences that may be drawn from the innuendoes are so clear that there can be no mistake about the intent of the author, or authors, of the communication.

In the first place, permit me to say to these "Many Citizens," who take the customary precaution of the blackguard to conceal themselves behind a nom de plume, that if the indebtedness of the borough has been "increased enormously during the past few years," the debt has been incurred by the consent and by the authority of the taxpayers. Whether the present members of Council, the men who have sacrificed their own business to promote that of the public, are more capable of producing results from the money expended, is a matter entirely for the taxpayers. If they choose to select new men to manage the affairs of the borough, I have no complaint to offer.

There are two other innuendoes in the communication which I desire to resent specifically. The first is the plain inference that my friends and myself are or have been, connected with the election, appealing for support for Mr. Hoehler, the Democratic candidate. Let me say now that the intimation is entirely gratuitous and almost stupidly infamous. The other intimation that I was supported at the primaries by the "things and political assassins" of the people's rights is equally infamous and worthy only of the man, or men, who delight in bush-whacking and shooting from ambush. When I went into the canvass for a re-nomination I did so at the request of a large number of the best and most intelligent citizens of the ward, and much against my own inclination. At the primaries I had not the support of even the ward workers, to say nothing of the "things and assassins." If there were any such voters active at the primary I think their votes were probably cast for my successful opponent. The citizens whose support I sought and received are not deserving of such epithets, and in this instance I deem it my duty to defend them from the imputations cast upon them by the author, or authors, of the communication signed "Many Citizens."

BRUTAL WIFE MURDER.

After Cutting the Victim's Throat a Hoboken Engineer Escapes.

HOBOKEN, N. J., Feb. 19.—Christopher Spearling, an engineer, employed by Conduellman Harry Snyder, murdered his wife at their home yesterday. The tragedy was the outcome of a series of quarrels which had taken place between Spearling and his wife. After spending most of the night in drinking Spearling returned to his residence early in the morning, and seized a razor and drew the keen blade across the woman's throat, almost severing the head from the body. There was no crying or screaming from the house unmolested. Some time afterward Spearling's aged mother discovered the body lying in her bed chamber. There were marks of bloody fingers on the sheets, where the murderer had coolly wiped his hands after committing the deed. The murderer has not yet been captured.

New Jersey Wins the Big Meet. NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—The fourteenth annual convention of the League of American Wheelmen, opened yesterday in the Grand Union hotel. The most important business transacted during the day was the election of officers and the selection of Asbury Park as the place where the annual games of the league shall be held this year. The officers elected are: President, A. C. Wilson of Maryland; first vice president, George A. Perkins of Massachusetts; second vice president, A. C. Morrison of Milwaukee; treasurer, A. E. Mergenthaler of Ohio; auditing committee, J. F. Adams of Massachusetts, J. J. VanNort of Pennsylvania and George R. Prout of Ohio.

Released from Contempt Charges. BALTIMORE, Feb. 19.—Mr. Lewis F. Bennett, manager of the Western Union Telegraph company, who was committed to the custody of the sheriff for contempt of court in refusing to answer a question by the grand jury regarding cipher policy dispatches, has been discharged from arrest. Mr. Bennett went before the grand jury and in answer to the question declared that he did not know of cipher policy dispatches being transmitted through any office. The charge destined him to be a competent answer.

To Investigate Church Enteries. LYONS, N. Y., Feb. 19.—Judge Adams, of Cassadaga, in opening the Wayne circuit court and court of oyer and terminer here, charged the grand jury to investigate all church fairs and other fairs where the law against lotteries was violated and to bring in indictments against the guilty parties; to also indict all persons having tickets in the slot machines in their places of business and to make careful inquiries in other directions. A large batch of indictments, it is expected, will be handed up.
